An Inside Look from Someone on the Inside

By Lauren D

As a 2nd year graduate student going into the job hunt it is easy to hear differing opinions on what to do and what not to do. The author let's it be known that this is his opinion, but it is a worthwhile one from years of experience. I finished reading this in one sitting, but I already feel like I've gained a lot of knowledge of what to consider as I continue through the job search process. Definitely recommend for grad students to pick up and read!

A Wonderful Resource

By Dani Langdon

I bought this book last night and read it cover to cover in one sitting. It was incredibly interesting and engaging. I recommend it to anyone going through this process! I would especially recommend this book to first year student affairs masters students. The information on this book will give you a clear look at the job search process and detailed strategies on how to set yourself up for success early!

By Delaney Foster

This book has been incredibly useful to me as a new professional looking to transition into another position. It is plainly written and still funny, which makes it an easy to digest read. I have implemented several of the suggested changes and interest has certainly increased! I have also heard Dr. Love speak on the subject in a webinar, and he is so helpful! A well spent $10.
