THE ICE OPINION BY HEIDI SIGMUND, ICE-T, HEIDI SIEGMUND PDF

This is the biography of rap artist, Ice T. He has toured the world three times since 1987, sold ten million records and starred in the movies, "New Jack City", "Ricochet" and "Trespass". Through his brand of hard-core rap, Ice T informed the public about the troubled state of his hometown, South Central, long before the LA riots ignited. The debut of his metal band, Body Count, earned him critical acclaim and many new fans. As one of rap's most articulate spokesmen, the artist was chosen by readers of "Rolling Stone" as 1992's Best Male Rapper. Ice T continues to speak out on racism, censorship and other volatile issues.

Pleased

By Jennifer Oaks

love the book and that the delivery took a 3 weeks of receiving it but very pleased.

I ordered this book for my husband since he is more a fan but once receiving it and started reading it he never put it down until he finished it.

thank you very much.

The Hood

By djsart

A very sad but true depiction of life in the ghetto. Having grown up in Los Angeles county in a red line district, under police chief Darrell Gates myself, I was impressed at how well ICE described the way life is there. One could have drastic changes in their opinions of ghetto life after reading this book.

Oldie but goodie

By Gena Diltz Probst

While the text is a bit old, there are still some very good insights from one of the truly "Old School" rappers. I only gave it 4 stars because it was a little more beat up than I expected. The seller DID deliver it on time and without any issues.
