Unique, straightforward approach to book writing

By Leah

Mary Carroll Moore demystifies the book-writing process with this essential how-to guide for writers of any skill level. "Your Book Starts Here" features Mary's unique approach to book creation along with invaluable writing exercises designed to elevate the quality of your writing - all delivered with her characteristic warmth and encouragement.

"Your Book Starts Here" offers unparalleled guidance on: building a writing practice; brainstorming content; writing scene-based islands; storyboarding within a three-act structure; stifling the inner critic; developing characters and setting; incorporating sensory details; exploring theme and so much more!

I credit "Your Book Starts Here" and the workshops and online classes I've taken with Mary for providing the inspiration, insight and supportive writing community I needed to propel me on my book-writing journey. Working through a chapter from Mary's book each week, I have discovered my writing voice and experienced a profound transformation in the quality of my writing. As a result, I'm well on my way to completing a first draft.

I highly recommend "Your Book Starts Here" for anyone who has always wanted to write a book - and those who want to raise the bar on their current or future book projects.

Your Book Starts Here

By Shelley

If you are interested in a precise and clearly written guide to learning or deepening your understanding of the craft of writing this is the book for you. It is an accessible and complete how to guide for a novice or an expert. Her book is full of anecdotes and exercises to help any writer solve any problem encountered in writing at any level. Take her book's lessons to heart, and you'll hear her clear voice, focused and compassionate asking questions, which if answered with disciplined intention lead to the appropriate answer. Moore's tone is supportive and respectful throughout this remarkable read. It's a sure footed guide through the wilderness of learning how to write well. Without this book I wouldn't have been able to write the rough draft of the novel that sits in my lap.

Inspiring, Comprehensive, and Practical

By Carol

Your Book Starts Here by Mary Carroll Moore is filled with information, anecdotes, and exercises to help you bring out the book inside you. The author has distilled her writing and teaching experience into a step-by-step manual on novel writing. Twenty-five chapters packed with inspiration and to-do information make this book well worth the money. One of the best writing books on my shelf, and I have many. If you want to write a novel, this is the book for you!
